waste pipes (may discharge through the back of the chamber) but must be watertight grating must ‘pop-up’ in the event of surcharge concrete surround if gully is likely to suffer damage every residential building must have at least one gully, the rim of which is 150 mm below the overflow level of the lowest fixture pipe bedding material

flow