

Bathroom Ventilation

Principles of bathroom mechanical ventilation

© BRANZ 2009

Extract fan should be positioned:

- as high as possible
- near to the main source of moisture (shower)
- on the opposite side of the room from the source of air replacement (window and inlet grill)

Fan may be controlled by:

- an infrared sensor or
- a humidity sensor or
- a switch and/or timer

